Hannah Roberts will be joining the University of Alabama in Fall 2021 as Instructor of Piano, teaching applied piano and piano pedagogy. She is currently a Doctoral Candidate in Piano Performance and Pedagogy (A.B.D.) at the University of Oklahoma, where she taught applied and group piano as a graduate teaching assistant.

Performance achievements include first place awards at the MTNA Oklahoma Young Artist, OMTA Collegiate, and ENKOR International Music Competitions, in addition to a performance at the Schlöss Esterhazy in Eisenstadt, Austria. As winner of the University of Oklahoma Concerto Competition and the Oklahoma Community Orchestra Competition, she has performed as a soloist with the OU Symphony Orchestra and the Oklahoma Community Orchestra. She also previously served as accompanist for the University of Oklahoma Musical Theater program.

Hannah holds degrees from the University of South Alabama and Thomas Edison State University, having studied piano with Jeongwon Ham and Robert Holm and piano pedagogy with Barbara Fast and Jane Magrath. She has performed in masterclasses for Alan Chow, Logan Skelton, Angela Cheng, Douglas Humpherys, and others. Hannah is an active presenter at regional events and national conferences.
