The Indenture provides, inter alia, (a) that in the event of default by the University in the manner and for the time therein provided, the Trustee may declare the principal of and the interest accrued on this bond immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall thereupon become immediately due and payable and the Trustee shall be entitled to pursue the remedies provided in the Indenture, (b) that the holder of this bond shall have no right to enforce the provisions of the Indenture except as provided therein and then only for the equal and pro rata benefit of the holders of all the Bonds, and (c) that if this bond shall not be presented for payment when due (whether by maturity or otherwise) and if funds sufficient for such payment shall have been made available to the Trustee therefore, all liability of the University to the holder of such bond and all rights of such holder against the University under such bond or under the Indenture shall cease and terminate and that the sole right of such holder shall thereafter be against the said funds so made available, which the Trustee is required to set aside and hold, subject to any applicable escheat or other similar law, for the benefit of such holder. The Indenture also provides that the University and the Trustee, with the written consent of the holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Bonds then outstanding under the Indenture, may at any time and from time to time amend the Indenture or any indenture supplemental thereto, provided that no such amendment shall (1) without the consent of the holder of each Bond affected, reduce the principal of, the rate of interest on any Bond, or (2) without the consent of the holders of all the Bonds then outstanding under the Indenture, extend the maturity of any installment of principal or interest on any of the Bonds, make any change in the schedule of required sinking fund or other similar payments with respect to any series of the Bonds, create a lien or charge on the Pledged Revenues ranking prior to or (except in connection with the issuance of additional parity bonds under the Indenture) on a parity with the lien or charge thereon contained in the Indenture, effect a preference or priority of any Bond over any other Bond or reduce the aggregate principal amount of Bonds the holders of which are required to consent to any such amendment.

The principal of this bond shall be subject to redemption and payment by the University, at the option of the University, on the first Business Day of any calendar month, in whole or in part without penalty or premium, upon not less than 10 days' prior written notice to the holder hereof (with a copy to the Trustee), at and for a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal hereof to be redeemed plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption.

This bond is not a general obligation of the University, and the covenants and representations herein contained or contained in the Indenture do not and shall never constitute a personal or pecuniary liability or charge against the general credit of the University. This bond is not an obligation or debt of the State of Alabama nor are the faith and credit of said state pledged for payment thereof, and neither the principal of nor interest on this bond is payable out of any moneys provided for or appropriated to the University by the State of Alabama.

It is hereby certified that all conditions, actions and things required by the Constitution and laws of Alabama to exist, be performed and happen precedent to or in the issuance of this bond do exist, have been performed and have happened in due and legal form.

The Trustee shall not be required so to transfer or exchange this bond during the period of fifteen days next preceding any interest payment date with respect thereto.

In addition, each of the Trustee and the University confirms that the Trustee shall have no duties, express or implied, respecting the proceeds of the Series 2023 Bonds during any time when the Trustee is not the depository of such amounts or respecting any other construction funds established under the Indenture for which the Trustee is not the depository.

Section 3.2 Confirmation of Pledges. The provisions of the Indenture, wherein the Pledged Revenues are pledged for payment of all Bonds issued under the Indenture, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Section 3.3 Construction of Twenty-First Supplemental University Facilities Revenue Trust Indenture. No provisions of this Twenty-First Supplemental University Facilities Revenue Trust Indenture shall be construed to limit or restrict, either expressly or impliedly, the obligations of the University contained in the Indenture or the powers of the Trustee thereunder, nor shall the provisions of this Twenty-First Supplemental University Facilities Revenue Trust Indenture be construed in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of the Indenture or in any manner that would adversely affect the interest of the 2023-A Lender as holder of the Series 2023-A Bond, or the interest of the 2023-B Lender as holder of the Series 2023-B Bond.

Section 3.4 Authorized Denominations. Each of the Series 2023 Bonds may have principal maturing in denominations of any amount.

Section 3.5 Severability. In the event that any provision hereof shall be held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such holding shall not invalidate or render unenforceable any other provision hereof.

Section 3.6 Special Reporting Covenants. The University shall provide each holder of Series 2023 Bonds the following:

- (i) audited comprehensive financial statements of the University, commencing with the fiscal year ending September 30, 2023, within 120 days following the close of each fiscal year of the University or as soon

(iv) such additional information as reasonably requested by such holder.

Section 3.7 Communications; No Advisory or Fiduciary Relationship. (a) The University hereby authorizes and consents to communications by the 2023-A Lender with the Trustee with regard to the Series 2023-A Bond including, without limitation, notices of amounts due, interest rate computations and interest amounts, and the University hereby authorizes and consents to communications by the 2023-B Lender with the Trustee with regard to the Series 2023-B Bond including, without limitation, notices of amounts due, interest rate computations and interest amounts.

(b) The University acknowledges and agrees that (i) the transaction contemplated by the Series 2023 Bonds is an arm's length commercial transaction between the University and each of the Lenders and, as to each, its affiliates, (ii) in connection with such transaction, the Lenders and, as to each, its affiliates, are acting solely as a principal and not as an advisor including, without limitation, a "Municipal Advisor" as such term is defined in Section 15B of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the related final rules (the "Municipal Advisor Rules"), agent or a fiduciary of the University, (iii) the Lenders and, as to each, its affiliates, are relying on the bank exemption in the Municipal Advisor Rules, (iv) the Lenders and, as to each, its affiliates, have not provided any advice or assumed any advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of the University with respect to the transaction contemplated hereby and the discussions, undertakings and procedures leading thereto (whether or not the Lenders, or, as to each, any affiliate thereof, has provided other services or advised, or is currently providing other services or advising the Issuer on other matters), (v) the Lenders and, as to each, its affiliates, have financial and other interests that differ from those of the University, and (vi) the University has consulted with its own financial, legal, accounting, tax and other advisors, as applicable, to the extent it deemed appropriate.

Section 3.10 Electronic Communications. The Trustee shall have the right to accept and act upon directions or instructions given by the University and delivered using Electronic Means (defined below); provided, however, that the University shall provide to the Trustee an incumbency certificate listing Authorized Officers with the authority to provide such directions or instructions (each an “Authorized Officer”) and containing specimen signatures of such Authorized Officers, which incumbency certificate shall be amended whenever a person is to be added or deleted from the listing. If the University elects to give the Trustee directions or instructions using Electronic Means and the Trustee in its discretion elects to act upon such directions or instructions, the Trustees’ understanding of such directions or instructions shall be deemed controlling. The University understands and agrees that the Trustee cannot determine the identity of the actual sender of such directions or instructions and that the Trustee shall conclusively presume that directions or instructions that purport to have been sent by an Authorized Officer listed on the incumbency certificate provided to the Trustee have been sent by such Authorized Officer. The University shall be responsible for ensuring that only Authorized Officers transmit such directions or instructions to the Trustee and that all Authorized Officers treat applicable user and authorization codes, passwords and/or authentication keys as confidential and with extreme care. The Trustee shall not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses arising directly or indirectly from the Trustee’s reliance upon and compliance with such directions or instructions notwithstanding such directions or instructions conflict or are inconsistent with a subsequent written direction or written instruction. The University agrees: (i) to assume all risks arising out of the use of Electronic Means to submit directions or instructions to the Trustee, including without limitation the risk of the Trustee acting on unauthorized directions or instructions, and the risk of interception and misuse by third parties; (ii) that it is fully informed of the protections and risks associated with the various methods of transmitting directions or instructions to the Trustee and that there may be more secure methods of transmitting directions or instructions; (iii) that the security procedures (if any) to be followed in connection with its transmission of directions or instructions provide to it a commercially reasonable degree of protection in light of its particular needs and circumstances and (iv) to notify the Trustee immediately upon learning of any compromise or unauthorized use of the security procedures. “Electronic Means” shall mean the following communications methods: e-mail, facsimile transmission, secure electronic transmission containing applicable authorization codes, passwords and/or authentication keys, or another method or system specified by the Trustee as available for use in connection with its services hereunder.

Section 3.11 Bondholder Representative. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and its successors and assigns, or any other entity subsequently appointed by the holders of the Series 2023 Bonds (the “Bondholder Representative”), shall, for purposes of such bonds and the Indenture, act as the representative on behalf of the Lenders and shall be the party to provide consent, direct remedies and take action on behalf of the Lenders under and with respect to the Series 2023 Bonds.

Section 3.12 Waiver of Jury Trial. The University and Lender waive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right to have a jury participate in resolving any dispute in any way related to the Series 2023-A Bond, the Series 2023-B Bond or the Indenture.

Section 3.13 No Rating or CUSIP; Assignment; Participations. (a) While the 2023-A Lender is a holder of the Series 2023-A Bond, and while the 2023-B Lender is the holder of the Series 2023-B Bond, the Series 2023-A Bond and the Series 2023-B Bond, as the case may be,

(c) The University agrees that the 2023-B Lender may, without limitation (i) at any time sell, assign, pledge or transfer all or a portion of the Series 2023-B Bond, or one or more interests in all or any part of the 2023-B Lender's rights and obligations under the Series 2023-B Bond to one or more assignees and/or participants, which may include affiliates of the 2023-B Lender; and (ii) at the 2023-B Lender's option, disclose information and share fees with such assignees and/or participants; provided that there will be only one holder of the Series 2023-B Bond and the University will pay debt service only to such holder.

The holder of the Series 2023-A Bond may divulge to any 2023-A Participant all information, reports, financial statements, certificates and documents obtained by it from the University. Prior to entering into any such participation agreement, the holder of the Series 2023-A Bond shall (i) notify the University in writing of such participation and the identity of each 2023-A Participant, and (ii) take commercially reasonable steps to protect the confidentiality of financial and other information of the University that may be provided by the holder of the Series 2023-A Bond to a 2023-A Participant.

(e) The University agrees that the 2023-B Lender may from time to time enter into a participation agreement or agreements with one or more persons (the "2023-B Participants"), pursuant to which the 2023-B Participants may be given participations in the Series 2023-B Bond and that the 2023-B Participants may from time to time similarly grant to one or more other persons (also included in the term "2023-B Participants") subparticipations in the Series

2023-B Bond; provided (i) no participation shall increase any liability of the University, (ii) the University shall not have any direct obligation to a 2023-B Participant, whether respecting the payment of any portion of debt service on the Series 2023-B Bond, delivery of its audited financial statements or other information herein required to be provided by the University, or otherwise, and (iii) the University shall correspond and deal only with the holder of the Series 2023-B Bond on any matters respecting the Series 2023-B Bond, the 2023-B Loan evidenced thereby, this Indenture, or any matters relating to the foregoing. The holder of the Series 2023-B Bond may divulge to any 2023-B Participant all information, reports, financial statements, certificates and documents obtained by it from the University. Prior to entering into any such participation agreement, the holder of the Series 2023-B Bond shall (i) notify the University in writing of such participation and the identity of each 2023-B Participant, and (ii) take commercially reasonable steps to protect the confidentiality of financial and other information of the University that may be provided by the holder of the Series 2023-B Bond to a 2023-B Participant.

Section 3.14 EMMA/Rating Agency Disclosure. The University agrees any public posting regarding the Loan or the Series 2023 Bonds on the Electronic Municipal Market Access system established by the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (the "MSRB"), or any similar site or repository, shall be subject to redaction, as requested by Lender, including, without limitation, signatures/names, account numbers, wire transfer and payment instructions and any other data that could be construed as sensitive information, to the extent that such redactions would not violate any disclosure obligations under applicable MSRB and rules of the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission.

EXHIBIT II
FORM OF LINE OF CREDIT AGREEMENT AND PROMISSORY NOTE

REVOLVING LINE OF CREDIT AGREEMENT

This REVOLVING LINE OF CREDIT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is dated _____, 2023 (the "Dated Date"), and is between HANCOCK WHITNEY BANK, a Mississippi state chartered bank (the "Lender") and the UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA (the "Borrower").

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Borrower has requested the Lender to establish a revolving line of credit (the "Line of Credit") for the Borrower to provide funds for lawful needs of the Borrower (the "Credit Loan"); and

WHEREAS, the Credit Loan will be evidenced by the Borrower's $50,000,000 Revolving Line of Credit Promissory Note, the form of which is set forth on Exhibit A hereto (together with any and all renewals, amendments, modifications of extensions thereof, "Line of Credit Note"), issued pursuant to this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Lender is willing to provide Borrower with a revolving line of credit on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants contained herein, Lender and Borrower agree as follows:

1. The Revolving Line of Credit; Interest

(a) Credit Advances.

(1) Prior to the Credit Advance Deadline (as hereinafter defined), and subject to and upon compliance with all applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement, and so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing hereunder or an Other Facility Event of Default (as hereinafter defined) shall have occurred and be continuing, the Lender shall make advances of funds representing principal proceeds of the Credit Loan and the Line of Credit Note ("Credit Advances") as directed by any Authorized Borrower Representative, by delivery to the Lender of a request in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto or by other written means acceptable to the Lender and the Borrower (a "Credit Advance Requisition"), in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at any time of not to exceed, fifty million and no/100 dollars ($50,000,000) (the "Credit Limit"). As used herein, (i) "Credit Advance Deadline" shall mean the last Business Day of the Credit Advance Period, and (ii) "Credit Advance Period" shall mean a period of thirty (30) consecutive months commencing on the Dated Date (which such period shall include the month in which the Dated Date occurs even if said month is a partial month).

(2) Except to the extent that funding of Credit Advances is being administered through an automated cash management system mutually approved by the Borrower and the Lender, each Credit Advance shall be made upon not less than two (2) Business Days' notice from the Borrower to the Lender.

(3) Prior to the Credit Advance Deadline, and subject to and upon compliance with all applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement, and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing hereunder, amounts advanced in respect of the Credit Loan and subsequently repaid to the Lender may be reborrowed by the Borrower so long as the aggregate principal amount outstanding at any one time does not exceed the Credit Limit.

(4) The indebtedness of the Borrower to the Lender under the Credit Loan shall be evidenced by the Line of Credit Note.

(5) By reason of prepayments there may be times when no indebtedness is owing under the Line of Credit Note, and notwithstanding any such occurrence, the Line of Credit Note shall remain valid and shall be in full force and effect as to each subsequent principal Credit Advance made thereunder.

(b) Interest.

(1) Interest shall accrue in respect of the outstanding principal balance of the Credit Loan at the Applicable Rate in effect from time to time.

(2) The Applicable Rate shall be determined on each Interest Rate Adjustment Date, and the Applicable Rate as determined on any Interest Rate Adjustment Date shall become effective on such Interest Rate Adjustment Date and shall remain in effect until the then next succeeding Interest Rate Adjustment Date.

(3) Interest shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year, applied to the actual number of days upon which principal is outstanding, by multiplying the principal amount outstanding and the applicable rate by the actual number of days elapsed, and dividing the resulting product by 360, from the date hereof until the maturity hereof shall be computed at the Applicable Rate.

(4) After maturity, whether that maturity results from acceleration or otherwise, interest on any principal amount due by the Borrower hereunder shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, accrue at the Default Rate, as hereinafter defined. Additionally, upon and at all times after the occurrence of any Event of Default hereunder respecting a payment delinquency or covenant breach until such Event of Default has been cured, interest shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, accrue at a rate of three hundred basis points (3.00%) in excess of the rate then otherwise in effect (the "Default Rate"), but in no event higher than 18% per annum or the maximum rate permissible under applicable law, whichever is less.

(c) Repayment.

The Borrower shall pay to the Lender:

(1) Except to the extent that repayment of the Credit Loan is being administered through an automated cash management system mutually approved in writing by the Borrower and the Lender, the unpaid interest accrued in respect of the Credit Loan (i) on the last day of each Quarter until the last full Quarter immediately preceding the Principal Amortization Period, (ii) on the first day of the Principal Amortization Period if the Principal Amortization Period begins on a date other than the first Business Day immediately following a full calendar Quarter, and (iii) on each Monthly Principal Amortization Period Payment Date during the Principal Amortization Period;

(2) As to principal outstanding hereunder, on each Monthly Principal Amortization Period Payment Date during the Principal Amortization Period, such amount as shall equal the Monthly Principal Amortization Period Payment Amount.

(d) Records of Lender Determinative. The amount from time to time outstanding under the Line of Credit Note and each payment on the Line of Credit Note shall be evidenced by entries in the Lender's internal records, which shall be conclusive evidence absent manifest error of (a) the amount of principal and interest owing on the Line of Credit Note from time to time; (b) the amount of each Credit Advance honored by the Lender under the Line of Credit Note; and (c) the amount of each principal and/or interest payment received by the Lender under the Line of Credit Note. The failure of the Lender to make an accurate entry of advances and payments shall not limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower to repay funds actually advanced by the Lender under the Line of Credit Note. Any loan or advance shall be conclusively presumed to have been made under the terms of the Line of Credit Advance to or for the benefit of the Borrower when made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or when said advances are deposited to the credit of the account of the Borrower with the Lender regardless of the fact that persons other than those authorized hereunder may have authority to draw against such account. Lender shall provide to the Borrower reasonable statements and information reflecting Lender's determination of the dates that Credit Advances are honored, dates and amounts of payments of interest and principal paid by Borrower, and of Lender's calculations respecting outstanding and payable under the Line of Credit Note.

(e) Line of Credit Note Enforceable for Amount of Credit Advances. The Line of Credit Note shall be valid and enforceable as to the principal amount of the Line of Credit Note advanced at any time hereunder whether or not the full face amount thereof is advanced.

FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS

or so much as may be outstanding hereunder, with interest on the unpaid outstanding principal balance of each Credit Advance, from the date honored until paid, at the Applicable Rate. This Note is being issued under and purchase to the terms of that certain Line of Credit Agreement dated [_____, 2023] (the "Line of Credit Agreement") between the Borrower and the Lender. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in the Line of Credit Agreement.

Interest hereunder computed on the basis of a 360-day year, applied to the actual number of days upon which principal is outstanding, by multiplying the principal amount outstanding and the applicable rate by the actual number of days elapsed, and dividing the resulting product by 360, from the date hereof until the maturity hereof shall be computed at the Applicable Rate.

Pursuant to the terms of the Line of Credit Agreement, from the date hereof through and including the Credit Advance Deadline, the Borrower shall have the right at any time and from time to time to request Credit Advances of funds from the Lender in an aggregate amount that, when added to the outstanding principal amount hereunder at the time such Credit Advance is requested, does not exceed $50,000,000.

Interest on each Credit Advance shall accrue from the date such Credit Advance is honored by the Lender until such interest is paid, and shall be payable (i) on the last day of each Quarter until the last full Quarter immediately preceding the Principal Amortization Period, (ii) on the first day of the Principal Amortization Period if the Principal Amortization Period begins on a date other than the first Business Day immediately following a full calendar Quarter, and (iii) on each Monthly Principal Amortization Period Payment Date during the Principal Amortization Period. Principal of this Note outstanding as of the Credit Advance Deadline, if any, shall mature and be due and payable in six equal monthly installments as set forth immediately below.

As to principal outstanding under this Note, principal shall mature and become due and payable on each Monthly Principal Amortization Period Payment Date equal to the Monthly Principal Payment Amount.

Contemporaneously with the delivery of this Note, the Borrower has made an assignment of the rights of Borrower to receive payments of Operating Basic Rent (as such term is defined in the Lease Agreement hereinafter described) paid to the Borrower by USA Health Care Authority under that certain Lease Agreement dated [____], 20____, between the Borrower and USA Health Care Authority.

The Borrower reserves the privilege of prepaying or causing to be prepaid all or any part of the principal balance of this Note at any time or from time to time, without premium or penalty, upon prior written notice to the holder of this Note, provided that, at the time of such prepayment, the Borrower pays the interest which shall have accrued to the date of such prepayment on the principal to be so prepaid. Once received, a notice for repayment may not be revoked or rescinded by the Borrower.

Installments of principal of and interest on this Note shall be remitted by the Borrower to the Lender as set forth in the Line of Credit Agreement. Any transferee of this Note takes it subject to all payments of principal and interest in fact made with respect hereto. If the date for payment of any installment of principal of or interest on this Note is not a Business Day, then the date for such payment shall be the next succeeding Business Day, with the effect that payment on such Business Day shall have the same force and effect as if made on the original date payment was due.

Reference is hereby made to the Line of Credit Agreement for a description of all rights and remedies of the Borrower and the Lender concerning the Line of Credit Agreement and this Note. The Line of Credit Agreement provides, among other things, that in the event of default by the Borrower in the manner and for the time therein provided, the Lender may declare the principal of this Note immediately due and payable, whereupon the same shall thereupon become immediately due and payable and the Lender shall be entitled to pursue the remedies provided in the Line of Credit Agreement.

This Note is transferrable by the holder hereof to any person or entity; provided such transfer complies with applicable federal and state securities laws.

FORM OF OPINION OF GENERAL COUNSEL TO THE UNIVERSITY

Hancock Whitney Bank
Mobile, Alabama

Re: $50,000,000 Revolving Line of Credit Promissory Note dated [_____, 2023], executed by The University of South
Alabama in favor of Hancock Whitney Bank

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I serve as General Counsel to the University of South Alabama (the "University"), a public body corporate under the provisions of Chapter 55 of Title 16 of the Code of Alabama of 1975, as amended (the "Enabling Act"), in connection with the University's execution and delivery of the above-referenced note (the "Note") in favor of Hancock Whitney Bank, a Mississippi state chartered bank (the "Bank"), which such Note is being issued under the terms of a Line of Credit Agreement dated of even date herewith (the "Line of Credit Agreement") between the University and the Bank.

It is my understanding as to the following: The Note and all Obligations (as such term is used in the Line of Credit Agreement") under the Line of Credit Agreement will be payable by the University from revenue sources other than state appropriations and that the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement will not be secured by a pledge of any funds or property of the University.

In connection with this opinion, I have reviewed the Note, the Line of Credit Agreement, certified copies of proceedings of the University with respect to the indebtedness evidenced by the Note, and such other documents or legal authorities as I have deemed necessary as the basis for the opinions hereinafter expressed. With respect to matters of fact, I have obtained such factual information from officers of the University as I have deemed necessary as the basis for such opinions.

Based on the foregoing, I, solely in my capacity as General Counsel to the University, am of the opinion that:

1. The University is validly existing as a public body corporate duly organized and in good standing under the laws of the State of Alabama.
2. The University is authorized to execute and deliver the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement, and to perform its obligations thereunder and under the Line of Credit Agreement.
3. Each of the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the University and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the University enforceable against the University in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, sovereign immunity, or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and (b) general principles of equity, including the exercise of judicial discretion in appropriate cases.

4. The execution, delivery and performance of the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement will not conflict with, or constitute a violation or breach of, or a default under, (a) the Enabling Act, (b) any agreement or other instrument to which the University is a party or by which it is bound, or (c) any order, rule, regulation, decree or ordinance of any court, government or governmental authority having jurisdiction over the University or its property.

5. No further consent, approval, authorization or order of any governmental or regulatory authority is required to be obtained by the University as a condition precedent to the University's execution and delivery of the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement, or the University's performance of its obligations under the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement.

6. To the best of my knowledge, there are no actions, suits or proceedings (whether or not purportedly on its behalf) pending or, to my actual knowledge, threatened, against or affecting the University, at law or in equity or by or before any governmental authority, that involve the execution, delivery or performance of the Note or the Line of Credit Agreement, the authority of the officers of the University executing the Note and the Line of Credit Agreement, or the possibility of any judgment or liability that may result in any material adverse change in the University's business, operations, properties, or condition, financial or otherwise (taking into account available insurance coverage).

7. To the best of my actual knowledge, the University is not in violation in any material respect of any existing law, rule or regulation applicable to it and is not in default under any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lien, lease, contract, note, order, judgment, decree or other agreement, instrument or restriction of any kind to which the University is a party or by which it is bound or to which any of its assets are subject.

I express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the laws of the State of Alabama and the laws of the United States of America, as currently in effect. I assume no obligation to supplement this opinion if any applicable laws change after the date of this opinion. This opinion is addressed solely to the parties identified above, and no one else may rely upon this opinion without our prior written permission.

Very truly yours,

(3) all taxes and public improvement assessments against the Premises that may become due and payable, if any, any such taxes and assessments to be paid when due directly to the official to whom the said taxes or assessments, as the case may be, are required to be paid; and

(4) all other charges which, if not paid, would form the basis for a charge or lien on the Premises or on the revenues of the Premises, the said charges to be paid directly to the person or persons to whom such charges are due.

(c) This Lease Agreement is and shall be deemed and construed to be a triple net lease, and the Basic Rent and Additional Rent specified herein shall be net to the Landlord in each year during the Term of this Lease Agreement. The obligation of the Tenant to pay the rental provided for herein and to make all other payments provided for herein and to perform and observe the other agreements and covenants on its part herein contained shall be absolute and unconditional, irrespective of any rights of set-off, recoupment or counterclaim it might otherwise have against the Landlord. In the event the due date of any installment of rental payable hereunder is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday in Alabama, such installment shall be due on the next succeeding business day.

ARTICLE V

MAINTENANCE, TAXES, AND INSURANCE

Section 5.1 Maintenance, Alterations and Improvements. (a) During the Term of this Lease Agreement, the Tenant will, at its own expense, (1) keep the Premises in as reasonably safe condition as is reasonable for a public building of such size and character, and (2) subject to the provisions of Section 5.2 hereof, keep the Facility, the Equipment and the other improvements located on the Site in good order and operating condition, without waste and in a suitable state of repair at least comparable to that which existed immediately prior to the commencement of this Lease Agreement (reasonable wear and tear excepted), and will make or cause to be made, as and when the same shall become necessary, all structural and nonstructural, exterior and interior, replacing, repairing and restoring necessary to that end. All replacing, repairing and restoring required of the Tenant shall be (in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord) of comparable quality equal to the original work and shall be in compliance with all standards and requirements of law, licenses and municipal ordinances necessary to operate the Premises as a hospital facility and related medical facilities.

(b) The Tenant will not remove or demolish any portion of the Facility or any improvements on the Site or any portion thereof or allow it to be removed or demolished, without the prior written consent of the Landlord. The Tenant further agrees that it will not make, authorize or permit to be made any changes or alterations in or to the Premises, the cost of which in any twelve (12) month period exceeds [$100,000.00], without first obtaining the Landlord's written consent thereto which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. All alterations, improvements and additions to the Premises shall be in quality and class at least equal to the original work and shall become the property of the Landlord and shall comply with all building and fire codes, and all other applicable codes, rules, regulations, laws and ordinances. Not less than [forty-five days] prior to the commencement of any such changes or alterations, the cost of which in any twelve (12) month period may exceed [$250,000.00], the Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord, at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, plans and specifications, prepared by a licensed architect, for such changes or alterations and any additional insurance reasonably required by the Landlord. Such plans and drawings shall include detailed architectural, mechanical, electrical and plumbing working drawings. The plans and drawings will be subject to the Landlord's approval with respect to design, aesthetics, building code compliance and such other matters as the Landlord deems relevant, which approval shall not unreasonably be withheld or delayed.

(c) The Tenant will not, during the Term of this Lease Agreement, permit any mechanics' or other liens to stand against the Premises for labor or materials furnished it in connection with any additions, alterations, improvements, repairs or renewals so made by it. During the Term of this Lease Agreement, the Tenant may, however, at its own expense and in good faith, contest any such mechanics' liens or other liens and in the event of any such contest may permit any such liens to remain unsatisfied and undischarged during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless by such action part of the Premises shall be subject to loss or forfeiture, in such events such mechanics' or other liens shall be promptly satisfied.

Section 5.2 Removal of Equipment. The Landlord and the Tenant recognize that items of the Equipment may from time to time become inadequate, obsolete, worn-out, unsuitable, undesirable or unnecessary in the operation of the Premises. In any instance where the Tenant in its sole discretion determines that any item of Equipment has become inadequate, obsolete, worn-out, unsuitable, undesirable or unnecessary in the operation of the Premises,

(a) The Tenant may (if no event of default has occurred and is continuing, without the necessity of any consent or approval by the Landlord) remove such item of Equipment from the Site and (on behalf of the Landlord) sell, trade in, exchange or otherwise dispose of it without any responsibility or accountability to the Landlord therefor, provided that the Tenant substitutes and installs in the Premises (either by direct payment of the costs thereof or by advancing to the Landlord the funds necessary therefor, as hereinafter provided) other equipment or personal property having equal or greater utility in the operation of the Premises for its intended purposes as hereinabove provided, which such substituted equipment or other personal property shall be free of all liens and encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances), shall be the sole property of the Landlord, shall be and become a part of the Equipment subject to the demise hereof, and shall be held by the Tenant on the same terms and conditions as the items originally comprising the Equipment; or

(b) The Tenant may (if no event of default has occurred and is continuing, without the necessity of any consent or approval by the Landlord) remove such item of Equipment from the Site and (on behalf of the Landlord) sell, trade in, exchange or otherwise dispose of it, without any responsibility or accountability to the Landlord therefor and without being required to substitute and install in the Premises other equipment or personal property in substitution therefor, provided that either (i) such item of Equipment has an individual book value (cost less accumulated depreciation calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as determined for financial reporting purposes) of [$10,000] or less as of the date of its removal from the Premises, or (ii) all such removed items have an aggregate book value (determined as of the respective dates of their removal) not exceeding [$500,000].

Any of the preceding provisions of this Section 5.2 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Tenant shall not exercise the right to remove items of Equipment in such manner as to impair the utility or habitability of the Premises.

In any case where the Tenant is herein required to purchase, install and substitute in the Premises any item of equipment, it may, in lieu of purchasing and installing said equipment or other personal property itself, advance to the Landlord the funds necessary therefor, whereupon the Landlord will purchase and install such equipment in the Premises.

Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the Tenant, at any time during which it is not in default hereunder, from removing from the Site any equipment that is owned by it or leased by it from third parties and that does not constitute part of the Equipment, provided (1) that such equipment may be removed without adversely affecting the structural integrity of any building or other structure forming a part of the Premises or causing any material damage to any such building or structure or to the Site, or (2) that if such removal will result in adversely affecting the structural integrity of any such building or other structure or in causing any material damage to any such building or structure or to the Site, the Tenant promptly after such removal takes such action as is necessary to restore the structural integrity of such building or structure or to repair such damage, as the case may be.

Section 5.3 Taxes, Other Governmental Charges, and Utility Charges. The Tenant will pay, as the same respectively become due, (i) all taxes and governmental charges of any kind whatsoever that may lawfully be assessed or levied against or with respect to the Premises, if any, that may become due and payable during the Term of this Lease Agreement (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any taxes levied upon or with respect to the Premises which, if not paid, would become a lien on the Premises or a charge on the revenues and receipts therefrom), (ii) all utility and other charges incurred in the operation, maintenance, use, occupancy and upkeep of the Premises, and (iii) all assessments and charges lawfully made by any governmental body for public improvements that may be secured by a lien on the Premises, if any; provided that with respect to special assessments or other governmental charges that may lawfully be paid in installments over a period of years, the Tenant shall be obligated to pay only such installments as are required to be paid during the Term for which the Lease herein made shall be in effect.

The Tenant may, at its own expense and in its own name and behalf or in the name and behalf of the Tenant, in good faith contest any such taxes, assessments and other charges and, in the event of any such contest, may permit the taxes, assessments or other charges so contested to remain unpaid during the period of such contest and any appeal therefrom unless by such action the title of the Landlord to any part of the Premises shall be materially endangered or the Premises or any part thereof shall become subject to loss or forfeiture, in which event such taxes, assessments or charges shall be paid prior to their becoming delinquent. The Landlord will cooperate fully with the Tenant in any such contest.

Section 5.4 Insurance. The Tenant will, at all times while this Lease Agreement is in effect, maintain in effect, or cause to be maintained in effect, reasonable insurance as against loss or damage to the Premises, which shall include at a minimum: (1) insurance against loss or damage to the Premises; (2) comprehensive public liability insurance for injury or death to third parties or damage to their property as a result of occurrences on or about the Premises; and (3) professional malpractice insurance in the amount reasonably established by the Tenant in the operations of its business. Any provision of this Section 5.4 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Tenant's obligation to carry insurance pursuant to the provisions of this Lease Agreement shall be suspended for as long as the Tenant has statutory authority to self-insure such risks. If the Tenant has self-insured and a claim is made or a loss incurred which would be covered by the insurance described above, then the Tenant shall be responsible for any such claim or loss and shall pay any settlement or judgment resulting therefrom.

Section 5.5 Advances by Landlord. In the event the Tenant fails during the Term of this Lease Agreement to take out or maintain the full insurance coverage required by this Lease Agreement or fails to keep the Premises in a safe condition as is reasonable for a facility of such size and character or the Facility, the Equipment and the other improvements located on the Site in reasonable repair and operating condition, the Landlord, after first notifying the Tenant of any such failure on its part and after the subsequent failure by the Tenant to take out or maintain such insurance or to take action reasonably calculated to keep the Premises in a safe condition as is reasonable for a facility of the size and character of the Premises or the Facility, the Equipment and the other improvements located on the Site in reasonable repair and operating condition, may (but shall not be obligated to) take out the required policies of insurance and pay the premiums on the same or make such repairs, renewals and replacements as may be necessary to maintain the Premises in as reasonably safe condition as the Tenant's operations permit and the Facility, the Equipment and the other improvements located on the Site in reasonable repair and operating condition, respectively; and all amounts so advanced therefor by the Landlord shall become an additional obligation of the Tenant to the Landlord, which amounts, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum from the date thereof, the Tenant will pay to the Landlord upon demand. Any remedy herein vested in the Landlord for the collection of rental payments shall also be available to the Landlord for the collection of all such amounts so advanced.

ARTICLE VI

PROVISIONS RESPECTING DAMAGE, DESTRUCTION AND CONDEMNATION

Section 6.1 Damage and Destruction Provisions. If the Premises or any of the Equipment is destroyed, in whole or in part, or is damaged, by fire or other casualty, the Tenant will promptly so notify the Landlord in writing. The Net Insurance Proceeds shall be paid to and held by the Landlord, whereupon the Landlord will proceed, as promptly as practicable under the circumstances, to repair, rebuild or restore the property damaged or destroyed to substantially the same condition as prior to the event causing such damage or destruction. Any balance of the Net Insurance Proceeds remaining after payment of all the costs of such repair, rebuilding or restoration shall be retained by the Landlord. The Landlord's obligation to pay costs of repairing, restoring or rebuilding any property damaged or destroyed shall be limited solely to the Net Insurance Proceeds referable thereto, plus any funds that may be contributed for such purpose.

Section 6.2 Condemnation Provisions. If the Premises or any part thereof is taken under the exercise of the power of eminent domain by any governmental authority or person, firm or corporation acting under governmental authority, the entire condemnation award referable to the Premises shall be paid to the Landlord and applied as hereinafter provided:

(a) Taking of All or Substantially All the Premises. If title to all or substantially all the Premises is taken by such eminent domain proceeding, this Lease Agreement shall terminate as of the date the condemning authority enters into possession of the Premises. The Tenant shall not, on account of being deprived of the use and occupancy of the Premises as the result of the taking by eminent domain of all or substantially all thereof, be entitled to any rebate or abatement of any Basic Rent or Additional Rent applicable to the Term that it may have, prior to such taking, paid to the Landlord.

(b) Taking of Less Than All or Less Than Substantially All the Premises. If title to less than all or less than substantially all the Premises is taken by such eminent domain proceeding and the Tenant reasonably believes that, in light of such exercise of eminent domain, it can no longer operate the Premises in materially the same manner as prior to the exercise of eminent domain and such belief is consistent with reasonable business practices, then the Tenant may either (a) terminate this Lease Agreement or, (b) subject to the consent and approval of the Landlord, with reasonable diligence, restore or rebuild to the extent reasonably practicable any improvements upon the Premises affected by the taking. In the event the amount awarded shall be insufficient to repair and restore the Premises, the Tenant shall contribute the amount of any such deficiency. In the event that all or less than all of the Premises is taken or so sold, and this Lease Agreement shall terminate as provided herein, then the Landlord shall be entitled to the entire award for the real estate, improvements, fixtures and personal property relating thereto.

Section 6.3 Tenant Obligations Upon Event of Damage or Condemnation. In the event of damage to or destruction of the Premises or any part thereof or the taking of less than all or less than substantially all the Premises through eminent domain proceedings, the Tenant shall not be or become obligated to pay, or to make any arrangements for the payment of, any of the costs of repairing, replacing, rebuilding or restoring the property damaged, destroyed, or taken or any of the costs of rearranging the Premises or any other facilities then forming a part of the Premises, and the exercise by the Tenant of any of its rights hereunder shall not be deemed to impose any obligations, either direct or consequential, on the Tenant in connection with any such repair, replacement, rebuilding, restoration or rearrangement that may be undertaken by the Landlord. The Tenant shall remain obligated to pay the entire Basic Rent and Additional Rent applicable to the Term of this Lease Agreement, even though it may be deprived of the use and occupancy of the whole or any part of the Premises during the remainder of such Term.

Section 6.4 Condemnation of Right to Use of Facility for Limited Period. If the use, for a limited period, of all or part of the Premises is taken by any such eminent domain proceeding, this Lease Agreement (including, without limitation, the obligation of the Tenant to pay the Basic Rent and Additional Rent) shall continue in full force and effect, but with the consequences specified in the remaining provisions of this Section 6.4.

The Tenant shall remain obligated to pay the entire Basic Rent and Additional Rent, even though it may be deprived of the use and occupancy of the Premises for all or any part of the remainder of the Term. The total of all condemnation awards that may, from time to time, be made to the Tenant or the Landlord as compensation for the taking of the use by or interest in the Premises of either of them, whether by way of damages, rent or otherwise, and all condemnation awards referable to such taking shall be paid to the Landlord. If such taking ends during the Term, the Tenant shall restore the Premises as nearly as practicable to the condition existing immediately prior to such taking, with such changes, alterations and modifications as will not change the character of the Premises.

Section 6.5 Condemnation of Tenant-Owned Property. In the event the Premises or any part thereof is taken through eminent domain proceedings, the Tenant shall be entitled to any condemnation award or portion thereof made for damages to or takings of its own property, as well as all other sums awarded as compensation for the interest of the Tenant in the part of the Premises taken and as damages to the interest of the Tenant in any part thereof not taken (excluding, however, compensation and damages referable to the Tenant's use of or interest in the Premises in the event of a taking of the Premises or any part thereof for a limited period).

ARTICLE VII

PARTICULAR COVENANTS OF THE TENANT

Section 7.1 General Covenants. The Tenant will not do or permit anything to be done on or about the Premises that will affect, impair or contravene any policies of insurance that may be carried on the Premises or any part thereof against loss or damage by fire, casualty or otherwise. The Tenant will, at its sole cost and expense, obey, observe and promptly comply with all present and future laws, ordinances, orders, rules, regulations and requirements of any federal, state and municipal governmental agency or authority having jurisdiction over the Premises and the operation of the Premises as a hospital facility and related medical facilities, which may be applicable to the Site and the Facility and improvements located thereon, whether or not such law, ordinance, order, rules, regulation or requirement shall necessitate structural changes or improvements. The Tenant shall keep in good standing and in full force and effect all necessary licenses, permits and certifications required by any governmental authority for the purpose of maintaining and operating on the Site a hospital facility and related medical facilities.

Section 7.2 Inspection of Premises and Records. The Tenant will permit the Landlord and its duly authorized agents at all reasonable times to enter upon, examine and inspect the Premises. The Tenant will also permit the Landlord and its duly authorized agents to take such action as may be necessary and convenient to cause the Premises to be kept in as reasonably safe condition as is reasonable for a public building of the size and character of the Facility and the Equipment and the other improvements on the Site to be kept in reasonable repair and operating condition, all as and to the extent provided in Section 5.1 hereof. At any time, during reasonable business hours, the Landlord and/or its authorized agents shall have the right to inspect, and, at the Landlord's expense, make copies of, the books and records relating to the Premises, or any part thereof, including, without limitation, to the extent permitted by applicable law all financial records, patient records, employment records, surveys and inspections reasonably required by the Landlord.

Section 7.3 Covenants Regarding the Tax Code. The Tenant covenants that it will take all actions and do all things necessary or required to enable the Landlord to comply with all provisions of the Tax Code that constitute conditions to or requirements for the exemption from Federal income taxation of interest income on the tax-exempt portion of the Bonds or any other form of tax-exempt financing with respect to any portion of the Premises. Without limiting the foregoing, the Tenant will comply with, and will do all things necessary to enable the Landlord to comply with, all provisions of the Tax Compliance Agreement and Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B. In the event that the Bonds or any other form of tax-exempt financing with respect to any portion of the Premises are refinanced and a new Tax Compliance Agreement and Certificate is entered into, the Landlord will notify the Tenant of such action, whereupon such new Tax Compliance Agreement and Certificate shall be deemed to replace the Tax Compliance Agreement and Certificate attached hereto as Exhibit B.

Section 7.4 Further Assurances. The Tenant will, at its own cost and expense, take all actions that may at the time and from time to time be necessary to perfect, preserve, protect and secure the interests of the Landlord in and to the Premises. The Tenant further agrees, without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, to take any and all such actions that in the judgment of the Landlord are necessary for the perfection, preservation, protection and securing of such interests.

ARTICLE VIII

EVENTS OF DEFAULT AND REMEDIES

Section 8.1 Events of Default Defined. The following shall be "events of default" under this Lease Agreement, and the terms "event of default" or "default" shall mean, whenever they are used in this Lease Agreement, any one or more of the following events:

(a) Failure by the Tenant to pay any installment of Basic Rent or Additional Rent; or

(b) Failure by the Tenant to perform or observe any of its other agreements or covenants contained in this Lease Agreement, which failure shall have continued for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice specifying, in reasonable detail, the nature of such failure and requiring the Tenant to perform or observe the agreement or covenant with respect to which it is delinquent shall have been given to the Tenant by the Landlord, unless (i) the Landlord shall agree in writing to an extension of such period prior to its expiration, or (ii) during such thirty (30) day period or any extension thereof, the Tenant has commenced and is diligently pursuing appropriate corrective action, or (iii) the Tenant is by reason of force majeure at the time prevented from performing or observing the agreement or covenant with respect to which it is delinquent;

(c) The filing by the Tenant of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, or failure of the Tenant promptly to lift any execution, garnishment or attachment of such consequences as will impair operations at the Premises, the seeking of or consenting to or acquiescing by the Tenant in the appointment of a receiver of all, or substantially all, of the property thereof or of the Premises or the adjudication of the Tenant as a bankrupt, or any assignment by the Tenant for the benefit of its creditors;

(d) Any conveyance or transfer in violation of Section 9.1 hereof;

(e) The abandonment of the Premises by the Tenant;

(f) The institution of any proceedings against the Tenant by any governmental authority either to revoke any license granted to the Tenant for the operation of the Premises as a hospital facility and related medical facilities or requiring the Tenant to cease operating its business; or

(g) The failure of the Tenant to comply with the terms of any insurance policy affecting the Premises and required hereunder within the time provided in such policy to cure such non-compliance prior to cancellation thereof; provided, however, that the Tenant shall not be in default hereunder if prior to the cancellation of such policy of insurance the Tenant obtains a replacement thereof.

The term "force majeure" as used in subsection (b) of this section means acts of God or the public enemy, strikes, labor disputes, lockouts, work slowdowns or stoppages or other industrial disturbances, insurrections, riots or other civil disturbances, orders of the United States of America, the State of Alabama or any department, agency or political subdivision of either thereof, or of other civil or military authority, or partial or entire failure of public utilities.

Section 8.2 Remedies on Default. Whenever any such event of default shall have happened and be continuing, the Landlord may:

(a) terminate the Tenant's right of possession of the Premises, take possession of the Premises and rent all or any part thereof for the account of the Tenant for the remainder of the Term;

(b) terminate this Lease Agreement, take possession of the Premises and lease the same for the account of the Landlord; and

(c) take whatever other action at law or in equity may appear necessary or desirable to collect the rent then due, or to enforce any obligation, covenant or agreement of the Tenant under this Lease Agreement.

Upon any such termination of this Lease Agreement, or upon any such termination of the Tenant's right to possession without termination of this Lease Agreement, the Tenant shall vacate the Premises immediately, and shall quietly and peaceably deliver possession thereof to the Landlord, and the Tenant hereby grants to the Landlord full and free license to enter into and upon the Premises in such event with process of law and to repossess the Premises and the Equipment. In the event of any such termination of this Lease Agreement, the Landlord shall again have possession and enjoyment of the Premises and the Equipment to the extent as if this Lease Agreement had not been made, and thereupon this Lease Agreement and everything herein contained on the part of the Tenant to be done and performed shall cease and terminate, all, however, without prejudice to and without relinquishing the rights of the Landlord to Basic Rent or Additional Rent (which, upon such termination of this Lease Agreement and entry of the Landlord upon the Premises, shall, in any event, be the right to receive Basic Rent and Additional Rent due up to the time of such entry) or any other right given to the Landlord hereunder or by operation of law.

In the event of an event of default and the Landlord elects either to terminate this Lease Agreement or to terminate the Tenant's right to possession of the Premises, then all licenses, certifications, permits and authorizations issued by any governmental agency, body or authority in connection with or relating to the Premises and the Facility thereon shall be deemed as being assigned to the Landlord to the extent the same are legally assignable. The Tenant hereby agrees to take such other action and execute such other documents as may be reasonably necessary in order to vest in the Landlord all right, title and interest to the items specified herein.

If the event that an event of default arises due to a partial payment of Basic Rent by the Tenant, then the amount of such partial Basic Rent so paid by the Tenant to the Landlord shall automatically be deemed allocated, pro rata, between the amount of Occupancy Basic Rent and the amount of Operating Basic Rent then due.

Section 8.3 No Remedy Exclusive. No remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Landlord is intended to be exclusive of any other available remedy or remedies, but each and every such remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given under this Lease Agreement or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or by statute. No delay or omission to exercise any right or power accruing upon any default shall impair any such right or power or shall be construed to be a waiver thereof but any such right or power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. In order to entitle the Landlord to exercise any remedy reserved to it in this Article VIII, it shall not be necessary to give any notice, other than such notice as is herein expressly required.

Section 8.4 No Additional Waiver Implied by One Waiver. In the event any agreement contained in this Lease Agreement should be breached by either party and thereafter waived by the other party, such waiver shall be limited to the particular breach so waived and shall not be deemed to waive any other breach hereunder. Further, neither the receipt nor the acceptance of rental hereunder by the Landlord shall be deemed to be a waiver of any breach of any covenant or condition herein contained even though at the time of such receipt or acceptance there has been a breach of one or more covenants or conditions on the part of the Tenant herein contained and the Landlord has knowledge thereof.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.1 Assignment. During the Term of this Lease Agreement, the Tenant shall not assign this Lease Agreement or in any manner whatsoever sublet, assign, encumber or transfer all or any part of the Premises or in any manner whatsoever transfer, assign or encumber any interest in the Premises or any interest in this Lease Agreement (hereinafter collectively an "Assignment") without the prior written consent of the Landlord, which consent may be withheld, in such party's sole discretion. An agreement by any person, corporation or other entity, directly or indirectly, to assume the Tenant's obligations under this Lease Agreement shall be deemed an assignment.

Section 9.2 Binding Effect. This Lease Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the Landlord, the Tenant and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 9.3 Severability. In the event that any provision of this Lease Agreement shall be held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed and construed to be severable from the remaining provisions of this Lease Agreement, with the intended result that such holding shall not invalidate or render unenforceable any other provisions of this Lease Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Landlord and the Tenant have caused this Lease Agreement to be executed by its duly authorized representatives, as of _____, 2023.
